GOULD ACADEMY 1992

Bethel, Maine 04217

DEDICATION: J. "MAC" DAVIS

The class of 1992 takes great pleasure in dedicating its yearbook to an extraordinary teacher and a valuable friend. Mr. Davis may be low-key and even mildly eccentric, but his genuine concern for our welfare and for making us both better students and better people makes him special. As a role model, Mac Davis is a powerful and positive force, whether in class struggling with bad puns, or outside on his machine creating a smooth course on the Upper Field for cross country skiing. He may not be quite as funny as his god, Garrison Keillor, but this charming, witty, and forgetful man is a wonderful part of Gould. We give him our sincere thanks and wish him all the best.

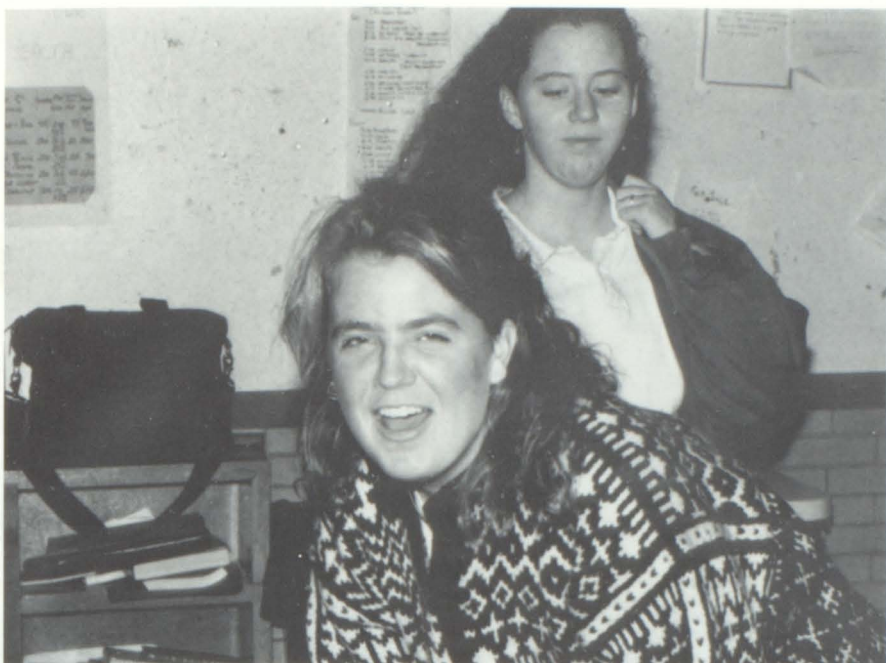

APPRECIATION: MAINTENANCE

The class of 1992 is pleased to offer special thanks in the form of a page of appreciation to the Maintenance Crew at Gould. Year after year, Maynard Morgan and his maintenance team strive to keep our school in good shape, doing much of their work behind the scenes and during vacations. Keeping up a school plant in New England is a difficult task, and Gould is fortunate to have a dedicated and effective crew. We especially appreciate the way these people have gone beyond their duties to offer students and all in our community friendship. We wish them well in the future.

JOSHUA BRETHAUER

"Howser" compliments of Garrett S.

Mom and Dad: Thank you for all of your love and support. Thank you for the faith you have in me, no matter who I am and what I believe in.

Mr.Davis: You're a true teacher in every aspect. Your character is true. You're an inspiration to me in the classroom and out. Stay Golden, Mr.D.

Madame: You've been the best language teacher, but and even better friend to me. Merci, Tineke. Je t'aime. "Ne te quoesiveiris extra." Persius

"No one I think is in my tree. I mean it must be high or low. That is, you know you can't time it but it's all right. That is, I think it's not too bad." J.Lennon

"And the dirt of gossip blows into my face and the dust of rumors covers me, but if the arrow is straight and the point is slick, it can pierce through the dust, no matter how thick. So I'll make my stand and remain as I am, and bid farewell and not give a damn." Restless Farewell- Dylan

"No! Try not.. Do..There is no try." Yoda

"And I'll tell it and think it and speak it and dream it, and reflect it from the mountain so all souls can see it, then I'll stand on the ocean until I start sinkin', but I'll know my song well before I start singin'." Dylan

"Orion's objective is not to finish his race, but to keep running across the sky among his brother stars, forever into the night."

JESSICA ANN MILLER

"Jess"

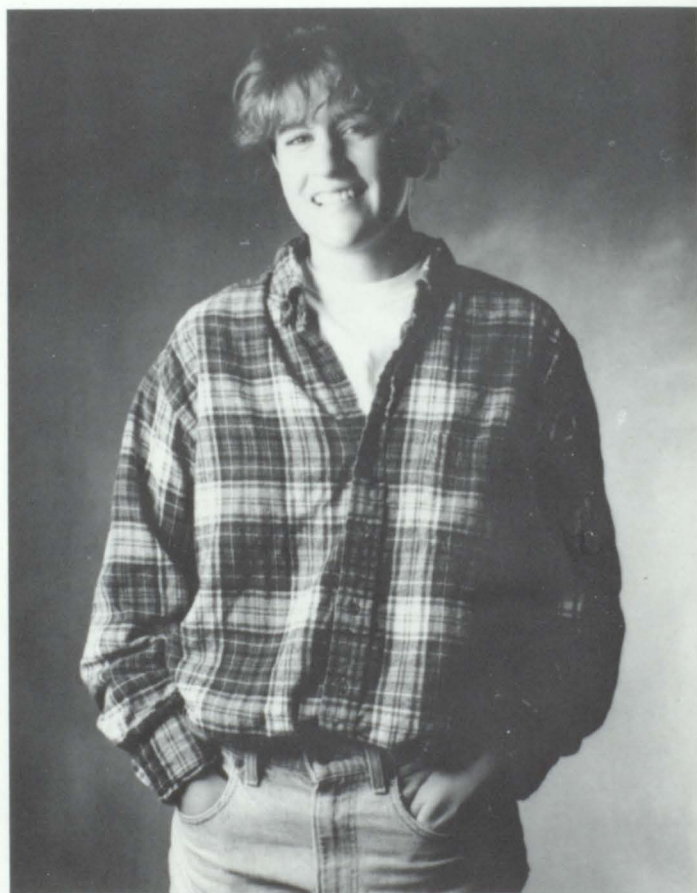

"If the world was crazy, you know what I'd do? I'd walk on the ocean and swim in my shoe, I'd fly through the ground and I'd skip through the air, I'd run down the bath tub and bathe on the stair. . . And the greatest of men would be silly and lazy so I would be King. . . If the world was crazy."

-Shel Silverstein

"Once in a while, you get shown the light in the strangest places, if you look at it right." -G.D

"Do not go gentle into that good night, rage, rage against the dying of the light." -Dylan Thomas

Thanks to Mom, Dad, Wendy, Chris, Geoff, and Tim. And to Mr. Seeley, where would I be without you?

ERIN C. DIAMOND

MEMORIES: 90-91: Under the bridge; Parent's Weekend; Spring Break, signs and hot tubs; Spring and Senior party, (memory?); 91-92: Moon the mountains, oranges and grapefruits, the condo: "A toast to Gouldies and fate, and to what's under your plate." ALLISON: What can I say after two years of living together? After sharing our closest feelings and wildest dreams? You are closer to me than a sister, and even though we are going our separate ways, I know we will always be together. Luv ya, Peefy. Mutated Signs forever. LELO AND EMMA: You guys are both awesome and I'm so glad I got to know you this year. Take care, I'll be back! EMMA: Remember your birthday and what happened in your attic. To the Gehring Girls, and to the rest of my friends: I will never forget the good times. "People like us don't ever change, we only get old and rearranged." Enuff-z-nuff. BIZ: You don't realize how much of an effect you have had on me. MR. BAKER: I can't believe I'm wearing wool socks. MR. GARDNER: Thanks for being an awesome advisor. I'll miss ya. MOM AND DAD: We've come a long way, thank you for everything. I love you.

"If we close our eyes, maybe we'll realize there's more to life than what we've known. And I can't believe I've spent so long living lies I knew were wrong inside. I've just begun to see the light. Long ago there was a dream, had to make a choice or two, leaving all I loved behind, for what nobody knew . . . Think for yourself and feel the walls become sand beneath your feet." — Queensryche

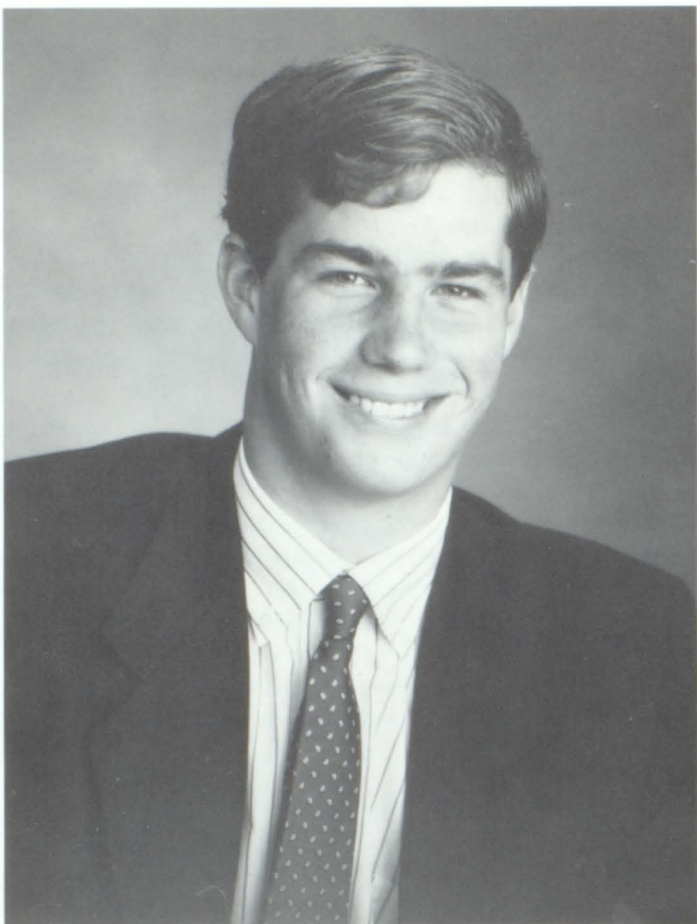

ALLISON LEA
Peef

MEMORIES: Writing to Gumbi in the closet, (will the Samba smell ever go away?); Tony's and the hot tub, foot long onions, and potatoes that coat your stomach; Immodium; and the Pepsi can art, (you know what I mean Diamond). ERIN: Thanks for being there these past two years, I don't know what I would have done without you. You've shown me a lot, and I'll never forget all the times we've shared. Wherever life may take us, we'll always be together. "Moments like these don't go away, they only get deeper every day." Enuff-z-nuff. I love you.

EMMA: Think of a big oak desk! Ha ha! JOSH S.: Thanks for being there to make me laugh, it really meant a lot to me. "If we close our eyes, we'll maybe realize there's more to life than what we've known." — Queensryche. I love you. MAUI: I don't know what happened, I guess there's a time when everyone has to go their separate ways. JUNI: "Wait . . . wait . . .!" — White Lion. Don't forget Burlington: "Are you ladies twenty one?" FUN HOG, my bosom buddy, they're really not water balloons. Thanks for all the back rubs. Love ya! JES-SAMINE B: You're so much like me in many ways. I admire your courage and determination. Keep that chin up. Thanks for letting me in. BRIGITTA: My little evil one, it's been an interesting time, hasn't it? I love you.

"Leaves are falling all around, it's time I was on my way. Thanks to you, I'm much obliged, for such a pleasant stay." — Led Zeppelin

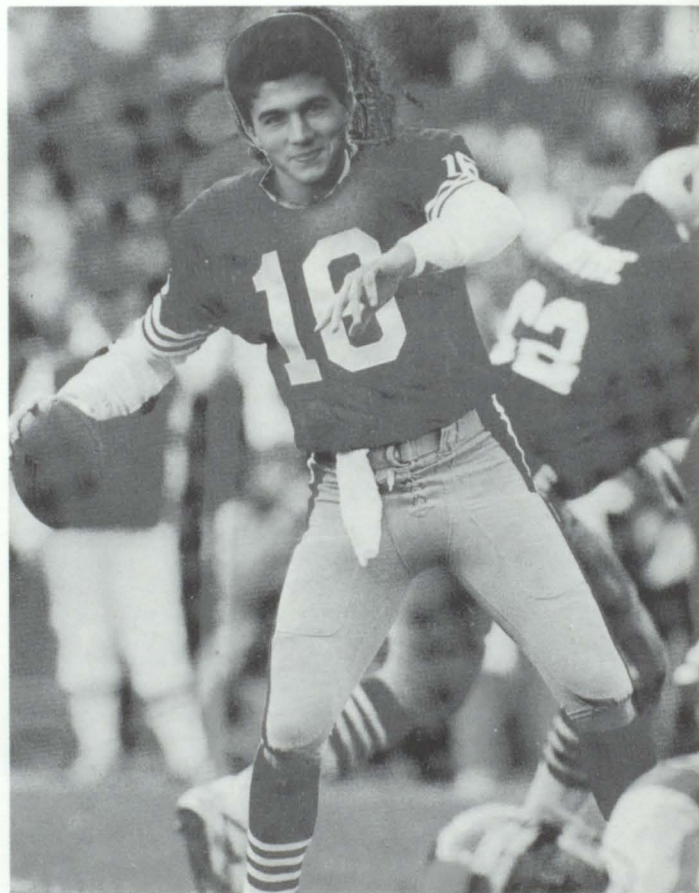

RAFFAELE PARISI

"We must not follow those who advise us, being men, to think of human things, and, being mortal, of mortal things, but must, so far as we can, make ourselves immortal, and strain every nerve to live in accordance with the best thing in us."

I would like to thank everyone at Gould Academy, especially:

MR. WIGHT: Thank you for being my advisor for two years.

MIKE S.: Best friend. Big guy. Someday, you can be Arnold, and I can be Rocky.

ADAM H.: No more choir.

MASAKAZU H.: Two years friend, thank you.

MASAHIKO T.: Thanks for teaching me how to ski.

FUKUTARO M.: Stay out of trouble.

PETER F: You owe me.

MOM AND DAD: Thank you very much for everything you gave me, I love you.

MICHAEL ANDREW STEINHACKER

"I'm a happy boy, I'm as happy as can be, I don't like smoke choking up my air. Some of these city folks, they don't care. I don't like cars buzzing around, I don't even want a piece of concrete in my town. I like sunshine. Fresh clean air makes me feel like you would care." -Lynyrd Skynyrd

"Remember what I said, I'm not waiting on a lady, I'm just waiting on a friend." -Rolling Stones.

PETE: Skybar, do me a favor, and get me the flavor.

BOYD: You'll always be weird.

ADRIAN: You'll never get a girl at Gould.

RYUTA: Oyasami-nasaia, Anata-wa Eigo-ga dekimasuka. Later on, buddy.

NEWELL: You're a real man.

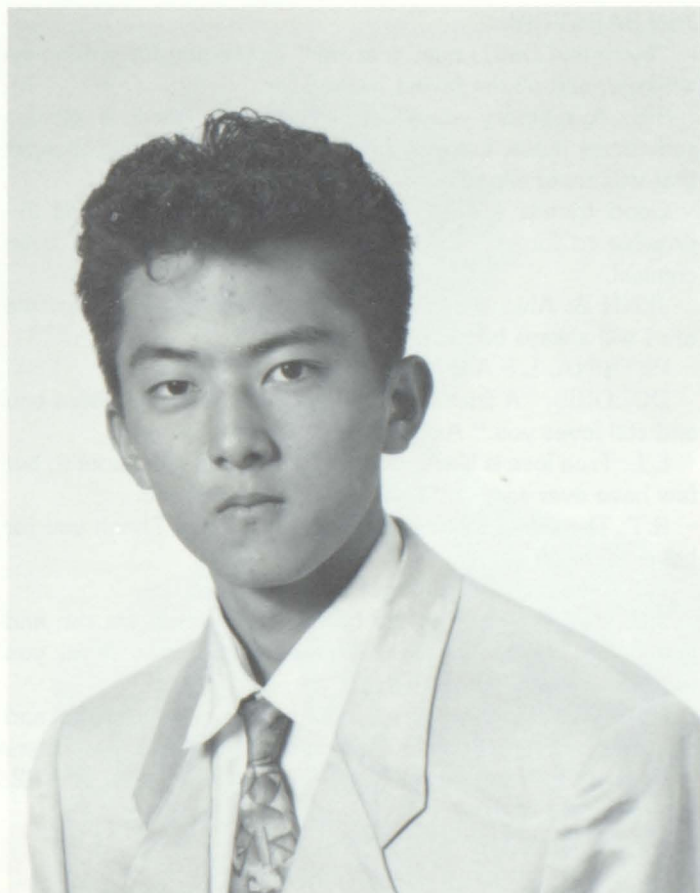

Thank you, Mrs. Owen for all the help you gave me. Live long and prosper.

And to everybody I've teased, I meant everything I said.

CAMPBELL: You'll always be Golden.

PLATT: O.B, let's rag on them until they cry.

To all of Second Floor Holden: Later on!

ALEKS HICKEY

"Hickey"

Bridget, Caitlin, Morgan, Mom, and Dad: "The world is so empty if one thinks only of mountains, rivers, and cities; but to know someone who thinks and feels with me, and who, though distant, is close to me in spirit, this makes the earth for me an inhabited garden." -Goethe

JEN BARSTOW:

"Mom and Dad, I need a favor." Thank you for putting up with me, and all the favors I asked for.

SIS: A memory stays forever in your mind, a picture sometimes fades, but our friendship is an everlasting thought that will never slip away. I love you!

Good friends are hard to find, harder to leave and impossible to forget. Aleks, I will never forget you! It's been comical.

JENN B: Always remember, no matter how far apart we are I will always be near.

PETRINA: L.S.A.B You know you're jealous.

DOLORIS: "A friend is someone who knows all about you and still loves you." And you know it all about me.

L.L: True love is like seeing a ghost; we all talk about it, but few have ever seen it." I believe I see it with you.

R.T: The world looks better behind a smile. Thank you for being there for me.

MIKA: Kid n' Play ain't got anything on us.

J.B: Live each day to the fullest; learn what you can and learn when you can for these are the best of times. Thank you for always making me laugh.

MOLLY: I always admire you for what you aspire to be, and love you for what you are. Thanks for taking the time to listen.

Lucia and Kate, thanks for all the good times in 91 and 92, especially Sundays!

MASA: Have a St. Ides on me!

BIZ: Good luck! Peace, we audi 5000!

MEMORABLE TIMES: Mobile unit; B.K. on Friday night. How many tickets, Jen? I can still see you in the glow of my brake lights, Jen, you're not dead. S.O.P's; Steve Miller Band, (and the music); The journey to D.D on the back road with 6 pigs behind us! Lucia, I swear I thought it was the truck behind us! Fryeburg Fair! It was a yellow dog! Gramps, his grandson, and family MOM AND DAD: Thank you for letting me go when I needed my freedom, and being there to support me when I came home. GARY: I'm glad we stayed through all the times, it would have been easy to walk away. It was worth it. HEATHER: I'm glad we're still best friends after everything we've been through. MOLLY: As we go down life's lonesome highway, it seems the hardest thing to do is to find a friend or two. Thank you for being a friend. Wonder triplets! LUCIA: I have needed you so much this year and you were always there for me. You are the only person who can make me laugh at everything. Thanks for the support, thanks for the laughter, and thanks for being there to dry my tears. LAUREN: Thank you for all the talks and advice. Someday I will forget that night from Hell and let you drive again. JEN: The past four years have been a blast! You have been such a good friend and I will never forget our weekends. There are still more to come! CHRISSY: You always amaze me! I'm glad we got the chance to become so close. You make me forget my worries, my problems, and unfortunately my morals! GRAM AND GRAMP: Thanks for your support, I love you!

LAUREN ALYSE ROMO

"When one door of happiness closes, another one opens. But often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one that has been opened for us." — Keller

To all my friends, thanks for the memorable experiences, laughs, and smiles. Good luck on the journey ahead.

TO THE MOBILE UNIT: Thanks for the bondage. Field Hockey (S.O.P), B.K on a Friday night, all the weekends, Fryeburg Fair, Steve Miller (and the music), group kiss, taboo, D.D on back road with six pigs behind us. Thanks for everything! Jen, my fellow shnarf queen, I won't forget the rock, corruption, weekends, late nights, detours, laughs, and cries we experienced together. Thanks for being a great friend.

JULIA: Can I drive? Thanks for all the talks, and times you've made me laugh.

MIKA: I have faith in you. You have always been there for me, and I will always be here for you.

MAURA: Thanks for everything! It was fun.

LUCIA: Hey, weeble, thanks for sticking with me.

GARRETT: You're simply marvelous!

MOLLY: Good luck.

LUCIA RANKIN

Things to remember: March 21, 1990; Mobile Unit; S.O.P; Fryeburg Fair; Molly's House Oct. 26; Sunday afternoons with K.C. and J.B; Gramps, his grandson and their dog Dixie out on patrol.

KATE: You have been there for me for three years and I couldn't imagine life without your friendship. "Whenever I see your smiling face, I have to smile myself, because I love you." -J. Taylor

GARRETT: You have helped me through a lot of times; I'll never forget that. Your friendship will always be special to me because you truly care.

MARNI, ROB: I couldn't have made it through the past four years without you. I love you both!

You listened when I needed to talk, you made me laugh when I wanted to cry, and you always stuck by me, thank you. You all know who you are.

JULIA: This year has been great and full of memories. I owe a lot of that to you. Hold on to your dreams, that's what keeps us alive. "I swear I thought it was the truck."

MOM: You have always given me room to make my own decisions, but if I ever fell down, you were there to pick me up. I love you.

DAD: I love you because you always want the best for me, and you'll bend over backwards to help me. But most of all, I'll always love you because you'll always love me.

FAMILY: Families are there to love you unconditionally; thanks for never letting me down.

GARRETT SILLIMAN:

Innocenti facea l'eta novella Thebe, Uguiccone e' l Brigata e li altri due che 'l canto sus appella.

Noi passammo oltre, la 've la gelata ruvidament un'altra gente fascia, non volra in giu, ma tutta riversata.

Lo pianto streso le pianger non lascia, e 'l duoi che truova in su li occhi rinroppa, si volge in entro a far crescer l 'ambascia; che le lagrime prime fanno groppo, e si come visiere di cristallo, riempion sotto 'l ciglio tutto il coppo.

E avvegna che, si come d'un callo, per la freddura ciascun sentimento cessato avesse del mio viso stallo.

AMANDA WIGHT

"Tears!" wailed a saddened Snaffles. "I can't cry. Only babies and sissies cry. You cheated me, rabbit. I wanted to find my emotions and learn how to laugh and all you gave me was tears."

"No, Snaffles," chuckled the rabbit. "I didn't cheat you. You can't find happiness until you know sadness, and you can't have true laughter until you know the taste of your own tears." -Stephen Cosgrove

MEL: I can't say what I want to because it isn't printable, but you know what. It's going to be weird not being called Melanie anymore. Every time I turned around, you were there. I luv ya. You know how to write.

ERIKA: What will I do without my Lion? Can hugs be mailed? Bat! Bat! Bat!

TRACE: Now that we don't go to the same school, all the time is vacation time. Don't forget to freeze your "specimen," Brava. Luv Luna.

NICCOLE: Hey, babe! Keep singing, and chill out!

SAMMY: Rule number one, no sharing ice cream. Rule number two, remember I luv ya so don't forget me.

JUSTIN: Is this another one of those religious questions?

MRS. POOLEY: I know there is more to life than black and white, but without you, I would have been hopelessly lost in the grey areas, and never seen the rest of the rainbow. Remember, chocolate is the only real food.

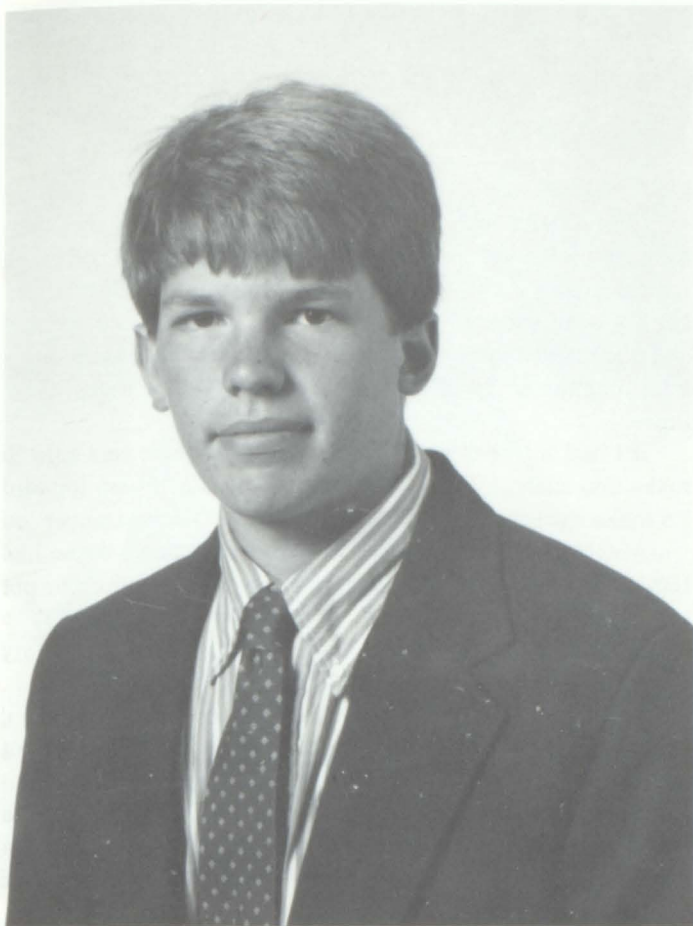

MY FAMILY: Living with me isn't easy, but I don't need to tell you that. I love you all, even Nate. Thank you.

MELANIE ROSE STOWELL

First, I would like to thank everyone at Gould for making my four years here great. Amanda, you've been a good friend. I love you, hon, and I'll miss you. Tracy, you are unique. You can always make me laugh, even when you're not trying to. Erika C., was Chemistry really that bad? O.K, it was. Try not to worry so much, you'll have a stroke before you get to college. Erika S. tell the J.V basketball team to keep my legacy alive. Stay out of trouble, okay? Gram and Grampa G., thanks for everything, you guys have been great. I love you! Thanks to Gram S. and all the rest of my family for looking out for me. Love ya!

Campbell: Get huge and throw sweet pots this summer. You're a good friend, keep in touch.

Dan: You have been a great roommate and friend. Do you want to work out in the morning?

Platta: We had lots of fun skiing. Have fun at college.

Paul, Alex, and Dave: We had lots of fun hanging out during study hall.

Mr. McGuire: Just kidding!

Holly: You've been a great friend. Can I pick your wedgy out?

Sam: We are the best "feusball" players.

Davidson: I don't fart anymore, really.

Pool Players: Jump it!

Mom and Dad: Thanks for pushing me to work harder and being there when I needed you. I love you both.

Mart, I love ya, Nugget. Roomies, maybe? After four years at Gould, I have fond memories of: Jacques and the No-Doze, Ralphie and Alphie, and GE has come. Steve Miller, a concussion, Steve Miller, 1-2-3, fig leaves, and more Steve Miller. Bongo, "You'll be sorry!" Thin wood=paper (Kinko), road rash from Grover Hill, and a concussion. My kamikaze partner, Hank (singer and crab), mother Shilo, Albinos, and graduation. Kurt, Jeff, Mom, and Dad: Words cannot justly express my gratitude. You are all enviable role models with the spirit and tenacity I can only hope of capturing with maturity. I adore you, and thank you for making me smile.

CHRIS LOGAN

Now I drift through the Poem of the Sea;
This gruel of stars mirrors the milky sky;
Devours green azures; ecstatic flotsam,
Drowned men, pale and thoughtful, sometimes drift by.

Staining the sudden blueness, the slow sounds,
Deliriums that streak the glowing sky,
Stonger than drink and the songs we sing,
It is boiling, bitter, red; it is love!

I watched the lightning tear the sky apart,
Watched waterspouts, and steaming undertow,
And Dawn like Dove-People rising on wings-
I've seen what men have only dreamed they saw!

-Arthur Rimbaud

But the raven still beguiling all my sad soul into smiling.
Straight I wheeled a cushion sheet in front of bird, and bust,
and door;
Then, upon the velvet, I betook myself to linking Fancy unto fancy, thinking what this ominous bird of yore-
What this grim, ungainly, ghastly, gaunt, and ominous bird of yore

Meant in croaking "Nevermore".

DAVE GRIFFIN

At one time I heard a blind man say the more you learn the less you know.

And it's true.

It took some time to think it through.

The more I listen and the more I think,

the more I realize the vastness of the world before me.

It is such that when I learn of one new thing,

it makes me realize all the things that go beyond that point are unknown to me.

And so here I go,

diving into the deep, Dark Sea of Uncertainty.

And this final thought occurs to me. . .

I've made it this far so if I keep on eating my Wheaties and saying my prayers I reckon I'll be okay.

J.T FICOCIELLO

My post graduate year at Gould Academy has turned out well academically, I did the best that I have ever done in school, gradewise. But there is nothing that could get me to go through it again, nor would I suggest a fifth year to anyone who is used to being treated like an adult.

I thank Mrs. Owen for helping me out through all the hard times. Mr. Newell and Mrs. Owen, you are two of the best teachers I've ever had.

MOM AND DAD: Thank you so much for all your love and support. I'm on my way. I love you both.

P.J AND MIKE: It's all over, you got to deal with me now.

BIZ: I wonder if we'll be in touch in 10 years. 20 years? I think we'll both have to come to Bethel in 10 years for a job. If we both go to school in Boston, it's over! Give me a call so I can whip you booty in hoops 1

JOSH O: I'll catch a game next year. Keep in touch.

GYGA: Thanks for waking me up! Stay tuned.

MR. HENRY: Thanks for opening my room for nothing.

DAVIDSON SUITE: Y'all a bunch of SEGA fiends.

KORRIE: Get some new shoes at Harry's.

MRS. BAKER: Thanks for everything. Hopefully I'll be accepted into college when you read this. Those Celtics games were great!

MASA HORIUCHI

I still can't believe I'm graduating from Gould. When I came here three years ago I could hardly speak any English. I would always say yes for every question. But all of my friends would try to teach me and understand my BUDGET English. This experience helped me learn how to speak better English, so I can have a conversation with anyone now! That's so great!

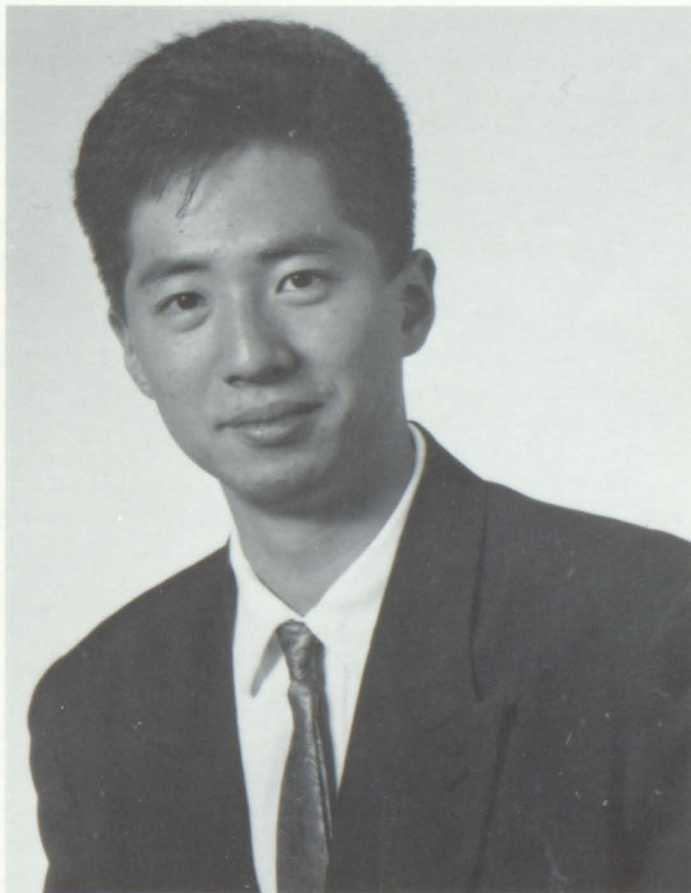

I would like to thank everyone at Gould and my family. Here are some messages for my friends: BIZ: You are my best friend and a great roommate! See you in B.U and drink ST. IDES together. RYUTA: I hope we can have another Tea party in Boston! ROB: I'm going to smork you at the baseball game. JOHN B.: Sit down!! JESSE: Let's buy some mushrooms in the I.G.A! ADAM: Adam-sun, you speak good Japanese. MASA: Good luck in skiing, Have fun with your girlfriend. Is she eighty five years old? Taro: Get a real haircut.

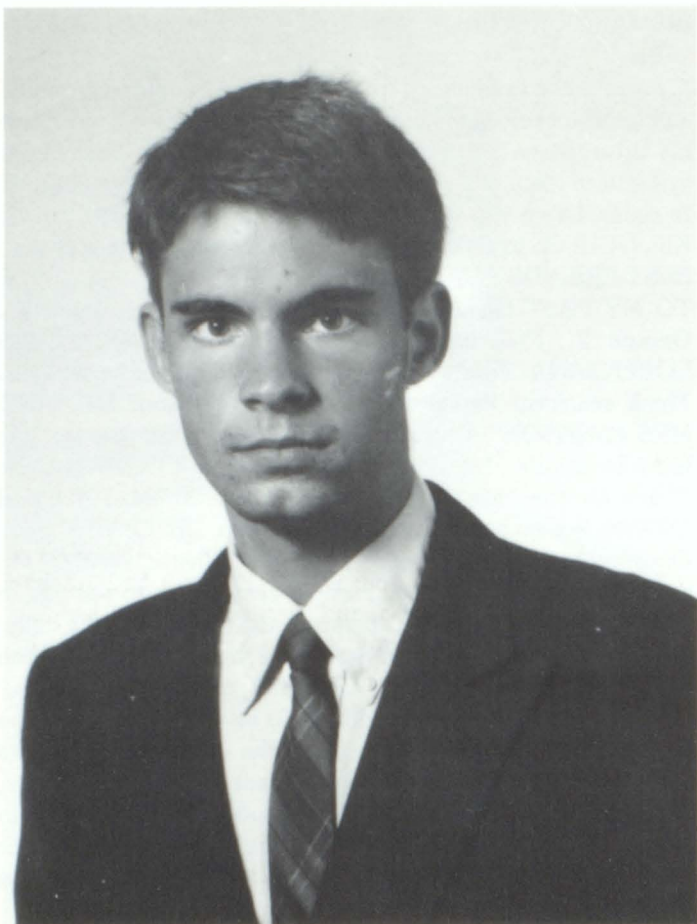

Caitlin, Alex, and Pete: I can say replay!!

TYSON, NATE, JOSH, CARTER, J.T, BRANDON, LINK, AND JUSTIN: Are you guys going to stay up tonight? Be good boys!

DAVID: Can you help me with my History or English homework?

P.S: You guys better remember me, because I will become the Prime Minister of Japan. Then you can come to Japan with a free air ticket, and you're going to be important guests from the U.S! Good luck class of 92

Success: To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and to endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded." -Ralph Waldo Emerson "No more turning away from the weak and the weary; no more turning away from the coldness inside. "Ah! The good old time- the good old time, Youth and the sea. Glamour and the sea! The good, strong sea, the salt, bitter sea, that could whisper to you and roar at you and knock your breath out of you."

He drank again.

"By all that's wonderful it is the sea, I believe, the sea itself- or is it youth alone? Who can tell? But you here- you had something out of life: money, love- whatever one gets on shore- and, tell me, wasn't that the best time, that time when we were young at sea; young and had nothing, on the sea that gives nothing; except hard knocks- and sometimes a chance to feel your strength-that only- what you all regret?"

And we all nodded at him: the man of finance, the man of accounts, the man of law, we all nodded at him over the polished table that like a still sheet of brown water reflected our faces, lined, wrinkled; our faces marked by toil, by deceptions, by success, by love; our weary eyes looking still, looking always, looking anxiously for something out of life, that while it is expected is already gone-had passed unseen, in a sigh, in a flash-together with the youth, with the strength with the romance of illusions.

-Joseph Conrad

Four Year Seniors

Clockwise starting below: Meredith Otten contemplates student art at spring show; Peter Finn and Josh Ferranto enjoy hillside view of lacrosse; juniors show genuine concern during dorm lottery with Czar Baker; Miss Mannersless etiquette from Jon Burrill and Adrian Higgins; Group anticipation in the Field House as all eyes focus on the lists of expedition units about to be announced as the adventure of the Outward Bound Junior Four Point is about to begin.

This year's sophomore class was both large and diverse with many talents and outstanding qualities. In the above picture they are doing a physics experiment to prove that the group as a whole is too large to fit into the doorway to Holden Lounge. Some members of the class are strategically placed to avoid identification, but they will all be famous for at least fifteen minutes at some point in their lives. Below left finds super sophomore runner Pat Cote leading the pack across the field from the start of a cross-country race. To the right indoor athlete Gwen Emmet working behind the scenes with Vicki Rackliffe on "Godspell."

Women's Varsity Soccer

The women's varsity soccer team had one of its most successful seasons with a record of 6-2-1 in the MAISAD league. It was a successful season in many ways: there was great team spirit, we worked together well, and finished second in the league. We also had six players make the MAISAD All-star team: Jen Barstow and Anne Jurgeleit made the first team, Caitlin Henningsen and Molly Gartrell made the second team, and Allison Lea and Kate Callahan got honorable mention. We out-shot our opponents 228 to 120 and outscored them 20 to 15. Allison Lea was a standout, allowing only 15 goals and making 83 saves. Keep the spirit up, women!!

Women's J.V. Soccer

This year soccer was very popular with girls at Gould and there were enough to have both a J.V. and Varsity teams. Our team was relatively small, we had just nine players. Players from Varsity were kind enough to play with us and they filled in our team. This year, our team had a great variety of players ranging from freshman to juniors. We may have played just six games but we did really well, winning two, tying three, and only losing our final game to Waynelete. We really had a great year; our soccer team improved but we also had a great time. Having no subs was sometimes very frustrating (and exhausting) but it gave us lots of playing time!

Men's Varsity Soccer

The varsity had many superlatives this fall; the team outscored opponents 40 to 6, and had three players on the All-star team: Josh Platt, Peter Dennett, and Omar Robinson. Goalie Josh Otten had six shutouts. Omar had 18 goals and six assists to lead the scoring, supported by Ryuta Koide and Alex Chapman. Gould went into the MAISAD tournament seeded #1, but lost to the fourth seed Hyde in the first game before winning the consolation against Carrabassett Valley Academy, 3-0. The highlight of the season was avenging an early season loss to Bridgton, (5-1), with a 7-1 victory at home. Awards went to Adam Harrigan and Josh Otten.

Men's J.V. Soccer

An entire season is always difficult to recap in written form. The joys, frustrations, hard work, and laughter can only be experienced on the practice field and in competition. This year's squad certainly went through a complete cycle of these feelings; however it will be long remembered as one of the more enjoyable teams to coach. Progress was tremendous culminating with the 1991 MAISAD State Championship with a convincing 6-2 victory over Hebron. The true measurement of progress will come as each player grows and advances through the Gould soccer program. This year's award winner for Most Coachable was David Ortiz.

Men's J.J.V. Soccer

Led by the fearless coaching of Hutch and Mr. Henry, the J.J.V. soccer team hurtled through the fall session. The highlight of the season was the overtime win against North Yarmouth Academy. N.Y.A. had previously beaten us 5-0 on Parents Weekend. Led by the goal tending of Chuck Roy, the outstanding defense of Toby Buckingham and Justin Wahlstrom, combined with the strong midfield play of Brendan Cook and Lincoln Baker, and the scoring power of Rob Blake the team went on to its most thrilling victory.

Golf

The golf team's final record, (1-4), does not reflect the quality of play that this small team displayed. The team was lead by two returning senior golfers, Jesse Bennas and Jason Walega, and first year freshman, Walt Hawkes. Their efforts were backed by Garrett Silliman and Josh Sorrells. Chae-Kyung Jung the team's sole female member, received the Most Improved award for her hard work and steady gains throughout the season. The Sportsmanship Award went to Jesse Bennas, whose consistent golf and willingness to coach teammates were invaluable.

Cross-Country

The Gould Academy cross-country running team wound up their '91 season with a clean sweep of the MAISAD championships. Patrick Cote of the boy's varsity division was the fourth runner to cross the finish line and the first Gould runner in. First in for the Gould girls' team was Jessica Miller. She placed fourth overall and led the girls to a decisive victory. The boys' JV division, with David Jorgensen in the lead, easily took Hyde, the other JV team, by an incredible 23 points. With the help of the coaches the cross-country team completed their season successfully.

Field Hockey

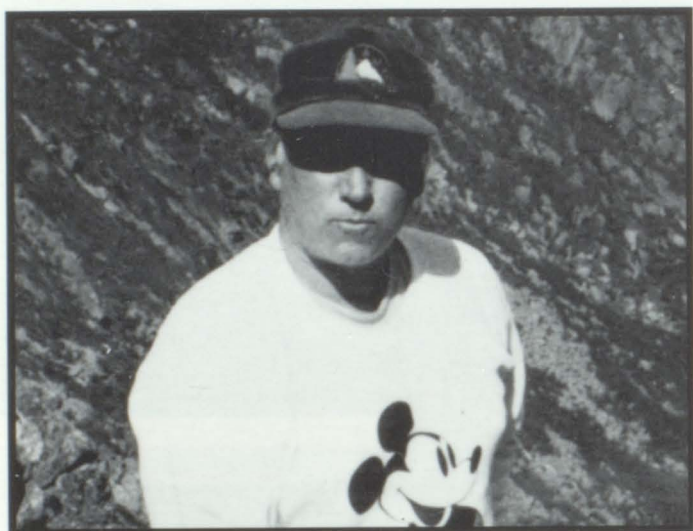

For the first time in three years, the women's field hockey team captured the MAISAD championship title. The team (12-1-2) posted eight shutouts with first year goalie, Kristin Petrone. Kristen (Most Improved Award) was outstanding and was supported by an incredible defense. The offense scored 39 goals to the opponents' 10. Gould was the number one Maine prep school team; MAISAD All-Stars were Lucia Rankin, Sue Crandall, Briana Bateman.

With heart-filled hopes and homesick tummies they set off to hike in the White Mountains or experience the talents of canoe paddling on the Rangeley Lakes. It's a good way to start off the Gould experience with the security of nature, Gould faculty, and Gould student leaders. New students often forge ties that make the adjustment easier, and proctors get to test their new leadership roles. But most of all people have a really good time sitting around the campfire, absorbing the views from mountain peaks or catching some rays in the reflection of the lakes. This fall's trips were blessed by unusually great weather: there were even views on Mount Washington. And sadly there were also tourists and cars.

MOUNTAIN DAY!

Mr. Clough enjoys foul weather Mountain Days which stretch student capacities and test the school's human resources; this year the Headmaster settled for nice weather which gave everyone excellent views from Caribou (quite different conditions from Gould's last Mountain Day on Caribou). Nobody seemed to miss classes much: Did anyone ask teachers? Some hikers seemed a good deal faster than others, but everyone made it out of the woods. There were discussion groups before heading back to school, but Nature not talk was the high point of the day. Some discussion groups had higher energy levels than others; a few people even stayed in the woods until it was time to leave.

The Gould Theater Workshop offered two rather challenging pieces of experimental drama this fall, Jean-Claude Van Itallie's "Interview from America" (an impressionistic work described as a fugue for eight actors) and Arthur Kopit's "Chamber Music" (a slice of life in an asylum with eight residents who think they are famous people). The first play used a format of verbal and physical choreography to examine the mechanism of modern urban America. The final drama offered a colorful group of eight lunatics in the confines of an asylum where the strains of Mozart were heard as well as the strains of psychotics clashing.

WORKERS IN THE WOODS

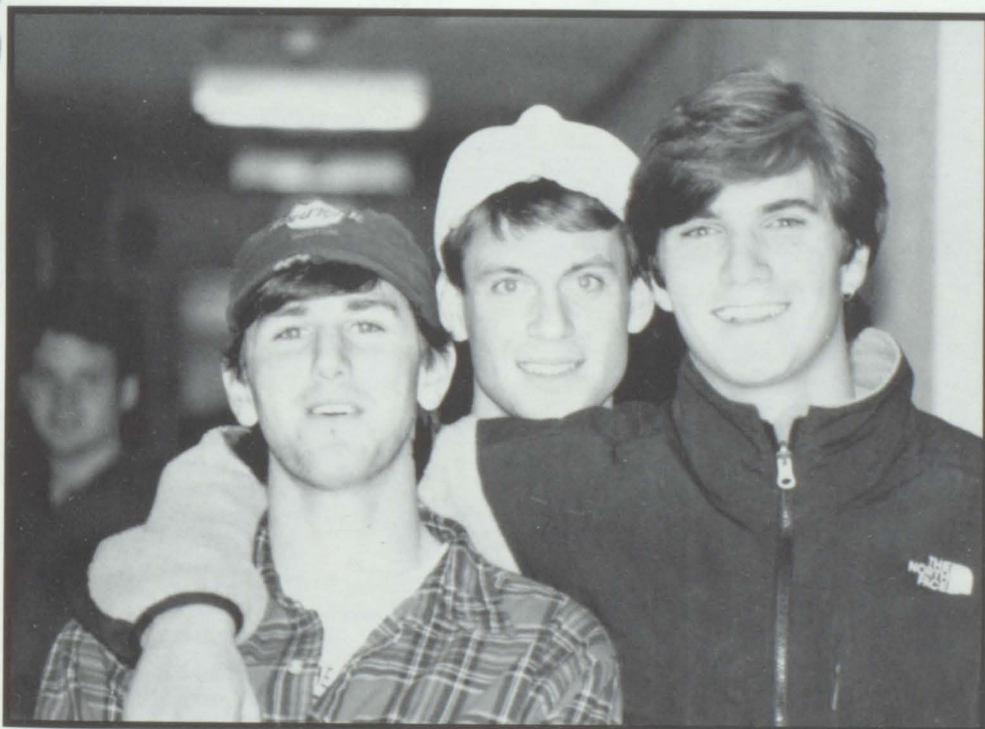

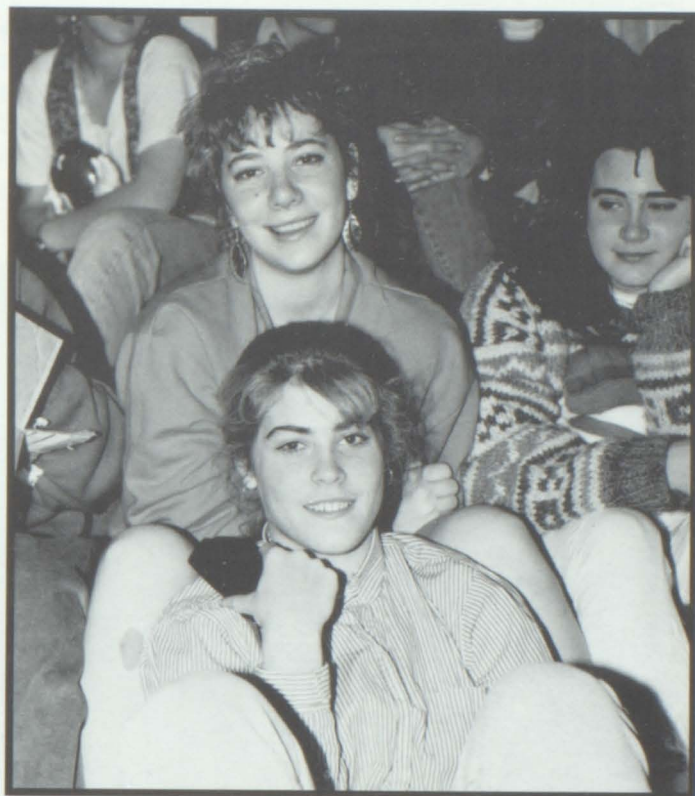

While Mr. Ford's Woodworking group pursued indoor projects in wood, Mr. Penczer's woodsmen sought outdoor challenges ranging from the sauna project where they had help from two postgraduates pictured at the top of the page to woodsmen's competitions requiring travel and mastery of basic skills. Woodworkers did a required Shaker stool project before doing more difficult creations; among the best craftsmen was Shinzo Honde seen to the right.

Women's Varsity Basketball

This year the basketball team had many ups and downs. Illnesses got in the way of two starters, but we never gave up. The one thing that stuck out about our team was through all obstacles we never gave up. We always gave it our all. It's not if you win or loose, it's how you play the game. Jen Barstow was selected to the New England All-Star game. During three years at Gould she scored 579 points, many game winners. Kate Callahan scored a season high 21 points against Hyde and contributed all year with solid defense and offense. Both victories this year came against rival Hebron.

Cross-Munity Women's J.V. Basketball

The women's J.V basketball team this year played well and tried very hard. We worked well as a team and put our best into every game. Despite all our effort we were still unable to produce a winning game. Part of the way through the season we lost two players, one to injury and one to another school. Even so we had a terrific time and are looking forward to another positive experience and a great season next year. The team would especially like to thank Mr. Fiske for being such an understanding coach.

Men's Basketball

The Men's Varsity Basketball team posted a 9-6 record: led by co-captains Bismarck Ramirez and Jason Portal, highlights included defeating a strong Hyde team 51-48 and taking two games from both Kents Hill and Rangeley. The offense was very balanced; usually three players scored in double figures. Jason Portal led with 12.5 points per game; Bismarck Ramirez and Sean Sims both averaged 10 points. Portal also took high game honors with 25 against St. Dom's. The Huskies dominated the boards this season with twin towers Biz and John Burrill.

Cross-Country Skiing

The stellar group of men and women on this year's cross country ski team found a snowless winter but a season full of laughter and hard work. The team was joined by many newcomers. Jessica Trundy, Gwen Stockwell, and Carrie Alden were all top skiers and joined veterans Sam Langlois and Susan Crandall to make an unbeatable women's squad. The men struggled through a trying season with injury and illness but were marvelous at the NEPS Championship with an impressive second place. Overall the group held strong and had fun. Many thanks to our coaches.

Alpine Skiing A Team

Gould Alpine Skiing had another great year; early training on snow helped. Erin Diamond's third place finish with Meredith Otten's fourth and Lelo Reeves' fifth gave the Women's Varsity first place at the Maisad Championship while Varsity men took second with David Gyger first and Josh Platt eighth. In the J.V. Maisad race Gould women took first, second, fourth, eighth; Emma Terray, Holly Walega, Lauren Washburn, Juniper Richardson. The J.V. men took seven of the top ten: 1. Corey Roderick, 2. Jon Rogers, 3. Masahiko Tokai, 5. Jesse Bennas, 6. Tyssen Butler, 7. Jason Walega, 8. Adam Rice.

Alpine Skiing B Team

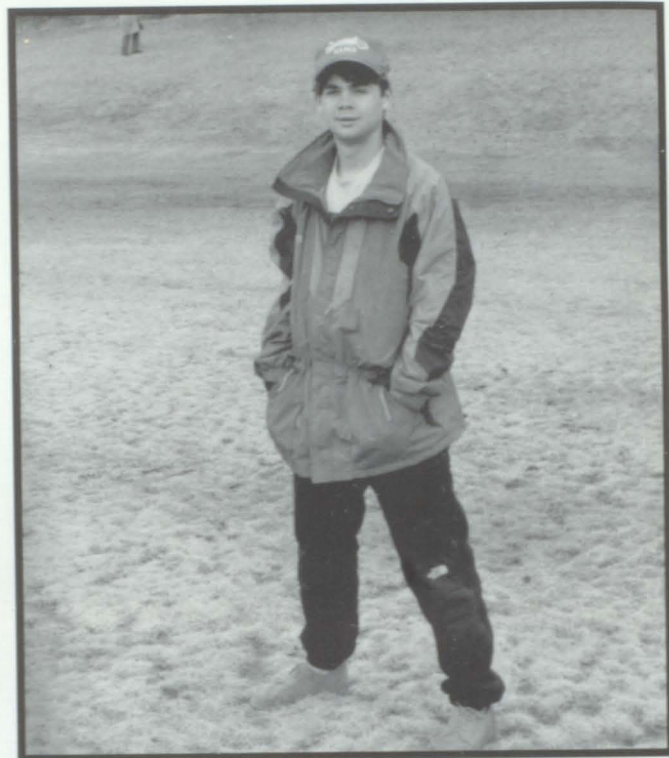

Gould's Alpine "B" team had a great season, winning every race and filling a majority of the top ten places in every event. Significant improvement was seen throughout the season, culminating in our complete victory over Kent's Hill, Hebron, Bridgeton, and Wayneville at the MAISAD Championships held at Shawnee Peak. The team owes special thanks to their coaches, Sue Gardner and Lauren Head; they worked hard to give the team a lot of confidence and experience which made our winter on the slopes especially rewarding and full of important progress which is what a good ski program is all about.

Ski Patrol, Rug Rats

This year's ski patrol group was the largest in recent years. Volunteer patrollers Chris McNevech, Toby Buckingham, Leah Bonnema, Shinzo Honde, Matt Thurston, Malcolm McGuire, Amy Stockman, Brendan Cook, Justin Wahlstrom, Adrian Higgins, and J.T. Ficociello on Mondays and Wednesdays worked on their Winter Emergency Care course both in class and on the mountain. The other three days the patrollers skied. This year's Gould student ski instructors did good work with 75 third to fifth graders from Bethel. Josh Sorrells won the Eric Bennett Award and Amy Todd earned recognition for outstanding service. Mr. Penczer enjoyed his first Rug Rat experience.

YEARBOOK STAFF 1991-92

This year's staff missed experienced leadership but survived by putting in a lot of time and effort to help the new yearbook advisor survive. Jen Baldwin helped when she wasn't in France, but the lion's share of the work went to a dedicated core of Molly Gray, Julia Johnson, Allison Lea, and Lucia Rankin; they deserve special thanks. In addition to the work of the seniors Carrie Alden and Nicole Halpenny, with an eye to the future, joined the staff in the spring. In addition to yearbook work the editorial group also tackled important issues in a series of informal roundtable discussions held at irregular times during the year.

Ski Jumping

Gould's jumping elite of Dan Boyle, Alex Chapman, Eric Harlow, and Nathan Wight had a season of too little snow and too many miles in the van. The season started with a weekend trip to Lake Placid where they had fun, flew far, and learned a lot. Back at Gould the team waited for snow. Finally blessed with the white stuff the Wight men won their only home meet by placing first, third, and fourth. After that practice happened whenever possible, sometimes during study hall. At the Nepsac Championships our team placed second by one point, Gould's best finish ever. The team thanks Mr. Wight and Mr. McGuire.

WHITE MADNESS AT GOULD!

This year's Winter Carnival was a freezing good time for all; frostbite came later, indoors. With a lot of spirited leadership from class representatives the weekend of special events went well, providing spectators with thrills and laughs; a special treat was the participation of the Hungarian Bobsled Team.

The tug of war provided harsh tests for both contestants and judges; nobody fools Mr. Baker, and Mr. Clough always enjoys watching people when they have to stretch themselves. Other important events included the amoeba race which was not one by the smiling group of young lovelies from Gehring and some chilly action down at the "rink." Participants this year were luckier than spectators because standing around in the friendly Bethel breezes tended to lead to death and other unpleasant side effects.

FOUR POINT 1992

The 1992 Four Point Program was a collective success with many individual adventures under group umbrellas. Seniors braved NTL to learn more about themselves and group dynamics. Juniors survived with good weather during their outdoor experience in the Maine woods. Sophomores did the most good for others in work for Habitat for Humanity at two sites in Massachusetts. Finally Freshmen enjoyed a once in a Four Point Program history trip to Hungary as part of an exchange program with the Varga Katalin school in Szolnok, Hungary.

SENIOR 4-POINT

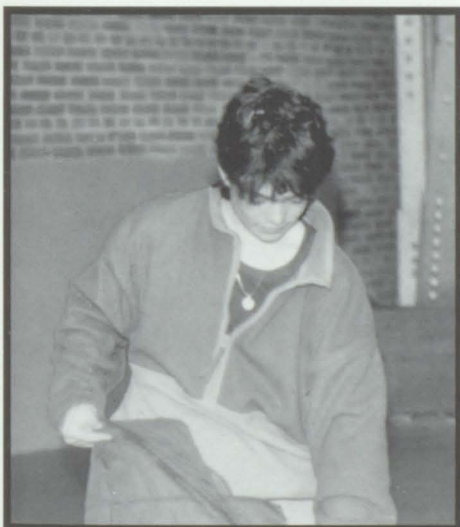

Once again Seniors entered the strange world of NTL and emerged different in many ways. The program offered by the National Training Lab gave members of the Class of 1992 opportunities to learn about themselves and how to interact with others; each small core group was different; all shared adventures in risk and insight. Benefits will be important and helpful in making the transition to life after Gould. NTL changed many in the young, untutored group below into satisfied young adults such as Maura Donahue and Jon Rogers at right.

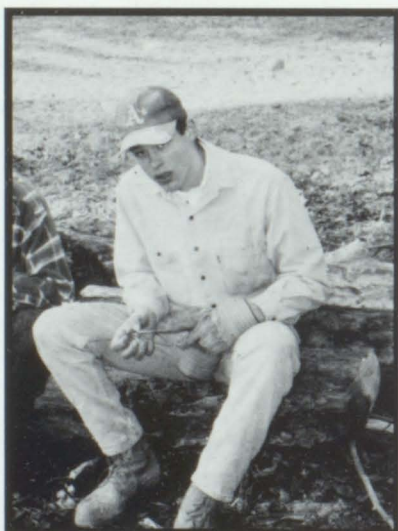

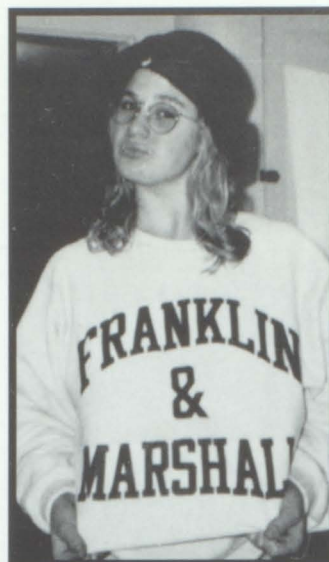

JUNIOR 4-POINT

The Juniors went off into the woods of Maine for an eight day hike. They learned how to survive with their classmates in the wilderness. As luck would have it they had nothing but the best weather. It was a bit nippy at night but the sun was shining during the day. Many forgot their suntan lotion and came back with rosy red sunburned cheeks. Good luck to next year's juniors on their trip through the wilderness!

SOPHOMORE 4-POINT

This year the Sophomore class went to Lynn and Lowell, Massachusetts. They worked hard with the crew from Habitat for Humanity. The students that went to Lowell worked on a couple different places. Some of them cleaned out a house that was getting ready for restoration and the others went to a soup kitchen. The group in Lynn worked building a house. They put in rafters and walls, occasionally resting on a couch in the field where they were working. Overall both crews worked hard to provide houses for the homeless.

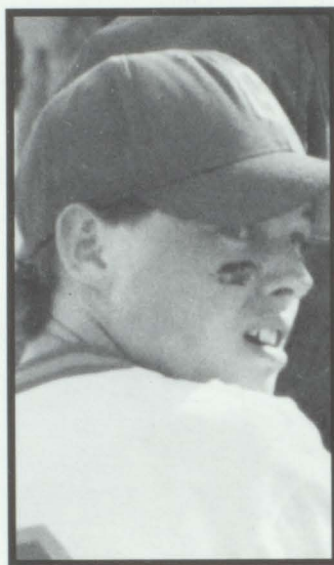

FROSH 4-PT.

The Freshman Four Point was a true international adventure which owed many thanks on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean. The Freshman trip to Hungary owed much of its success to the earlier visit of thirty Hungarian students to Gould; staying with host families which included many of their former guests made the experience in Hungary and at Zoltan Fodor's school, Varga Katalin Gimnazium, really special. On the bus at the start of the trip few could imagine what was to come. Budapest and Bethel are different.

BASEBALL

Baseball is back at Gould Academy. After an absence of fourteen years Coach Newell brought back the sport he enjoyed so much as a student. The season was rewarding because players worked hard and accomplished more than their 2-4 record reveals. Lombard Field was christened on April 23 with the first outdoor practice. The season finale was a close 8-9 loss to Hebron which had beaten us 15-1 at the start of the season. Awards went to Omar Robinson and Masa Tokai; Josh Otten is captain for 1993. At right Mr. Clough, Stump Merrill, and Coach Newell like what they see.

Softball

Softball developed a healthy offense, led by sluggers Sue Crandall(.600) and Allison Lea(.591), which garnered a 3-2 season record with co-captains Sue Crandall and Jen Barstow. Defensively the team relied on Sue Crandall's pitching and Allison Lea's catching assisted by infielders Jen Barstow, Nicole Halpenny, Erin Diamond, Jamila Cowan, and outfielders Katie Hutchins, Emma Terray, Jen Madore. The winner of the Award for Sportsmanship was Allison Lea. Mika Cross won the Most Improved Award. At left Coach Dohrmann confers with players; below left Allison Lea waits to get home.

Men's Lacrosse

Lacrosse with only three players back from 1991 endured a hard 1-10 season but maintained a positive attitude and a focus on improvement. Led by All Stars Adam Harrigan, captain Jay Walega, and Josh Brethauer, and tough defense from Adrian Higgins, Mike Steinhacker, and Jim Chastenet, the team coped well with frustration. A thrill was a tight 10-10 tie earned in the 7th annual alumni game. The 1992 Team: row 1, Sam Decker, mgr., Linc Baker, Adam Harrigan, Jon Rogers, Mike Steinhacker, Jay Walega, Bryce Gasser, Josh Breithauer, Nedda Campbell, mgr.; row 2, Guillaume de Ramel, Kyle Power, Brandon Gray, Jason Portal, Adrian Higgins, Regis de Ramel, Jim Chastenet, Justin Wahlstrom, Coach Graham.

J.V. Lacrosse

Building for the future was the goal for this year's team made up almost entirely of players who were new to the sport of lacrosse. A good measure of the group's success was making the semi-finals of the state J.V. tournament. The team had lots of enthusiasm and improved with each game all season. The 1992 Team assembled bottom left: Standing, Coach Rackliffe, Matt Thurston, Sam Gibbs, Rob Blake, Doug Herberich, Richard Mills, Michael Rackliffe, Greg Matthews, Troy Zerveskes, Orca Bates, Toby Buckingham, Greg Gnecco; kneeling, Jesse Peck, Josh Paquette, Josh Ferranto, Stefan Foord, Peter Finn, Pat Cote, Chris McNevech, Jason Knight.

Women's Lacrosse

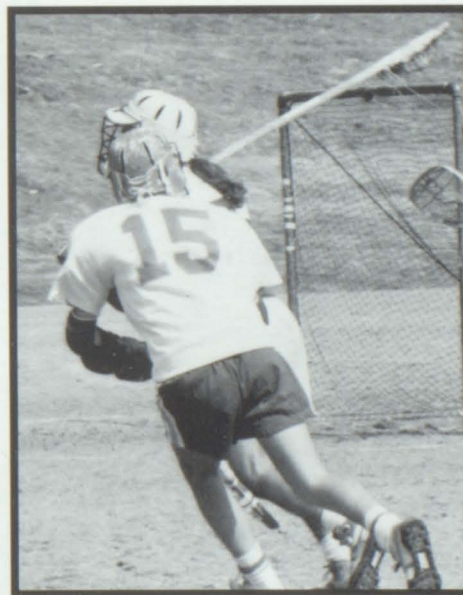

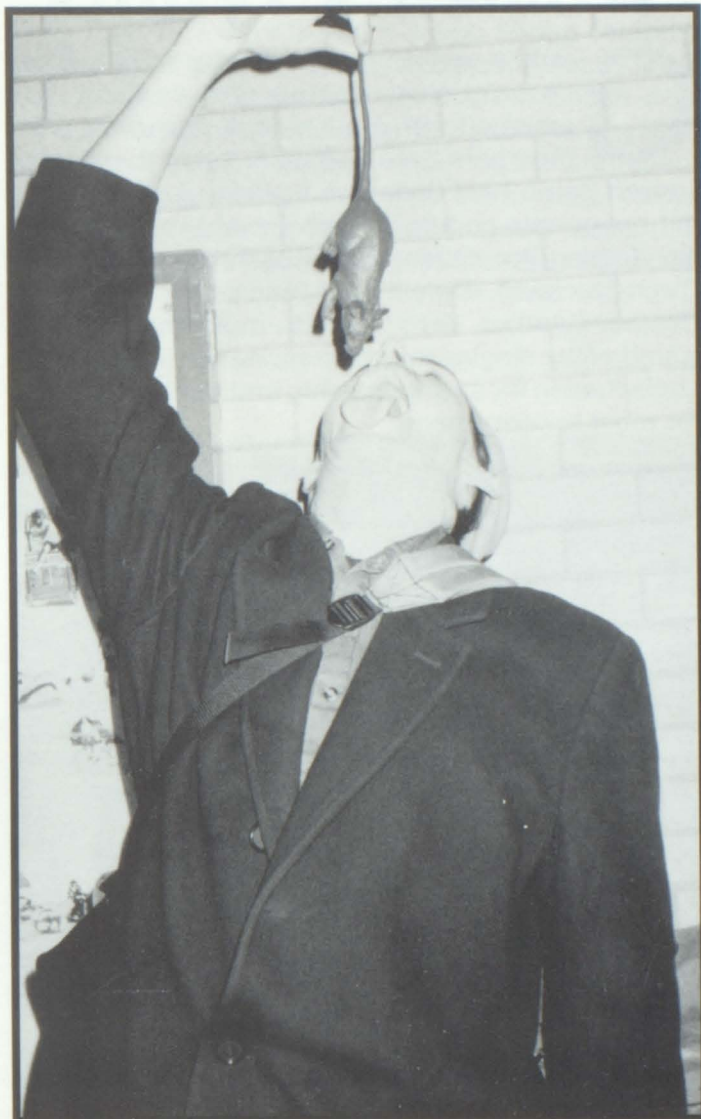

Winning their first eight games with an explosive offense and solid goaltending from Jaimie Powers, Gould's lacrosse women gained a great deal from their pre-season trip to Hilton Head. What was supposed to have been a building year became a fine season, even with a disappointing championship loss to Waynelete after leading most of the season. Lelo Reeves was high scorer with an incredible 46 points. Other high scorers were Holly Walega with 35 points and Juniper Richardson with 31. Jaimie Powers had an outstanding first year as a goalie with 141 saves. Jaimie Powers, Lelo Reeves, Amy Todd, and Holly Walega all made the Maine All-Star team. Next year all but two players return. Watch out!

1992 Spring Sports Moments

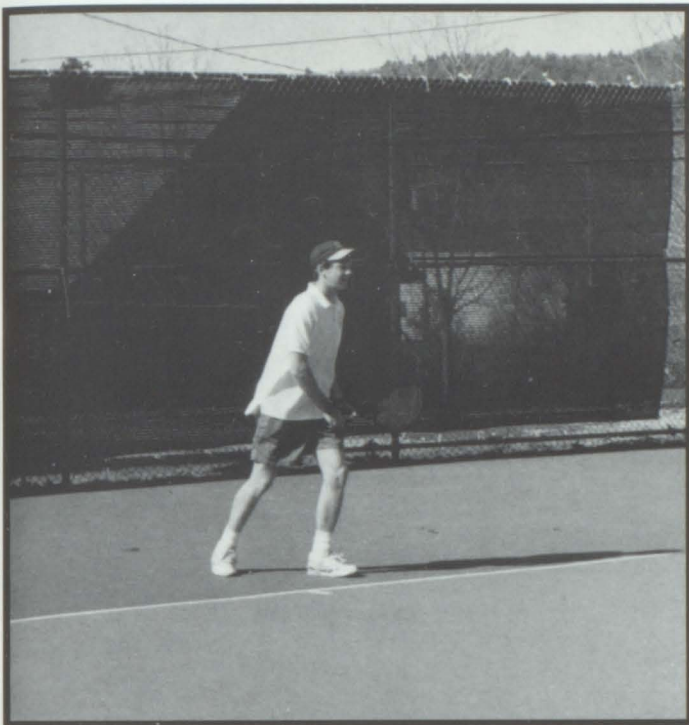

Women's Tennis

Gould's women tennis players found strong competition during the season and emerged with a 3-4 record. Returning team members Kate Callahan, Lucia Rankin and Lauren Romo held their own against some challenging opponents and some unbelievably close matches. Helping the cause in doubles were the duos of Gwen Stockwell, Chae Kyung Jung and Maeve Lugris, Heather Gardner. Kate Callahan made the semi-final round of the singles tournament. Award winners were Lucia Rankin for sportsmanship and Heather Gardner for most improvement.

Men's Tennis

Men's Tennis had a rough spring campaign at both the varsity and junior varsity levels. The Varsity was winless, but Coach Henry felt progress was made in terms of a building year. Varsity players were David Jorgenson, Rafael Lopez-Para, Sang Woo Park, Nate Parker, Shinzo Honde, and award winners Jason Gazzilli (most improved) and Brian Callahan for sportsmanship. The J.V. players finished their season with a 1-3 record; the squad was Carter Davidson, Jason Lowen, Mac McGuire, Helge Schmidt, and Eric Stirling.

Cycling

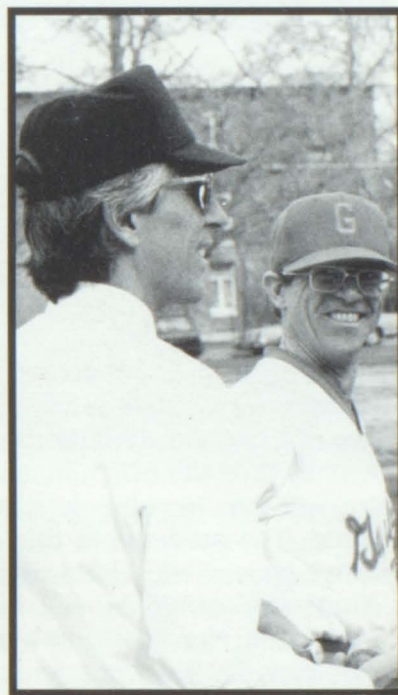

Cyclists at Gould did not let a late spring deny them success with an experienced team led by David Griffin, Page Hadden, and John Martinsen. Chris Montgomery, Tyssen Butler, Raffaele Parisi, Dan Varisco added support to the top three; Samantha Langlois finished first in the league for women. Gould won four of six regular season races outright and was 2nd to CVA in the league championship. Page won the New England Championship; Dave was 5th.

1992 Moments That Used To Be

“Godspell” : a Celebration!

Carol Fiske's last production at Gould was an appropriately spirited, spiritual, and totally successful rendition of "Godspell" — the classic rock musical based on the Gospel According to St. Matthew. After eighteen years of directing, choreographing, and orchestrating plays and musicals here since 1974, Mrs. Fiske is retiring from a position in which she has done a great deal for a great many over the years. The good news is that having recently built her own house in Bethel she will not become a stranger to Gould. The students in this cast put forth a special effort knowing that this "Godspell" would be the last Fiske production. Mrs. Fiske has been a true champion for the arts over the years, and as faculty member Mac Davis, no stranger to performance arts, says, "She does a marvelous job getting things out of kids." Carol Fiske has helped the whole Gould community get more out of drama and performing arts while at the same time alerting many students to talents and avocations they did not know they possessed.

Above: J. T. and Molly.

"Godspell" had vital help off stage; musicians included Roberta Muse on keyboard, Nat Hussey on guitar, Todd Fiske on bass, Tim Rowe, percussion, Chae Kyung Jung, flute; Vicki Rackliffe, technical director, Emma Terray, choreographer, Amanda Wight, stage manager, and Tracy Bachelder, Gwen Emmet and Abby Wiggin who helped with sets, costumes and lights. Greg Gnecco and Rob Blake handled sound problems.

Polar Bears: Are They For Real?

ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

Celebrating French language and culture is the main goal of the group, not to mention goodies prepared in the Ouwinga kitchens and other occasions for fellowship and sustenance including the annual expedition to Quebec which always has a lot more fun than Benedict Arnold's group enjoyed two hundred plus years ago. Madame Ouwinga was the group's inspired leader. Alliance 1992: L-R, row one, Helge Schmidt, Tracy Bachelder, Regis de Ramel, Jason Knight, Madame Ouwinga, Brendan Cook; row two, Bekka Kuzyk, Samantha Langlois, Jon Burrill, John Martinsen.

REACHOUT

Dr. Ouwinga's organization is a very good one because it is a group which does good and provides a link with the Gould community and the outside world. Dr. O. and the students of Reachout try to make a contribution to those less fortunate and raise funds for various projects such as the Third World Children program and other charity efforts closer to home. Another major activity of the group this year was writing letters for Amnesty International which addresses the difficult task of securing improved conditions for victims of human rights abuse around the world. 1992 Reachout and writers for Amnesty International: L-R, Dr. Ouwinga, Helge Schmidt, Josh Brethauer, Abby Wiggin, Keavy Cook, Brendan Cook, Jaimie Powers, Jason Lowen, Miss Carlson.

GOLD KEY

Gold Key members donate time to projects for the Alumni and Development Office with Mr. Todd and Mrs. Bernier to help with special weekend programs, telethons, any ventures which may prove helpful to Gould from shaking hands to stuffing envelopes. 1992 Gold Key: Down L-R, Eric Harlow, Samantha Langlois, Amy Todd, Holly Walega, Bekka Kuzyk, Anne Jurgeleit, Darcie Burnell, Phoebe Hausman-Rogers, Molly Gartrell, Bryce Gasser; Up, Lauren Romo, Nicole Halpenny, Juniper Richardson, Peter Dennett, Mike Steinhacker, Jennifer Baldwin, Campbell Mastin, Liese Stevens, Josh Brethauer, Lucia Rankin, Kate Callahan, Justin Wahlstrom, Aleks Hickey, Jason Lowen, Amanda Wight, Ericka Stevens, Jessica Trundy, Nancy Morgan.

BLUE KEY

Blue Key members perform a vital task for Gould by serving as tour guides for prospective students and their families throughout the school year, sometimes even during vacations. Many positive impressions of a Gould visit come from the warmth and effectiveness of our student guides. The Admissions Office is grateful for their good work. Blue Key 1992: L-R, row one, Amanda Wight, Toby Buckingham; row two, Eric Stirling, Jen Madore, Brendan Cook, Josh Paquette, Dwight Blake; row three, Jaimie Powers, Heather Gardner, Keavy Cook, Nicole Halpenny, Molly Gartrell, Anne Jurgeleit, Pat Cote; row four, Phoebe Hausman-Rogers, Bill Clifford, Emma Terray, Eric Harlow, Dave Gyger; row five, Mary Jo Reed, Aleks Hickey, Lelo Reeves, Jason Portal, Jamila Cowan, Greg Matthews.

Choir

The Gould Academy Choir has maintained a high standard of excellence under Carol Fiske for eighteen years. Singers managed to have both fun and success in practice and performance culminating in choral contributions to the 156th Gould Baccalaureate. Mrs. Fiske will be missed, but she leaves a fine example behind. The 1992 Choir to the left is, front row, Chae-Kung Jung, Nedda Campbell, Gwen Stockwell, the rest(l-r), Samantha Langlois, Molly Gartrell, Marie Lowell, Darcie Burnell, Jill Nowak, Melanie Stowell, Liese Stevens, Jessica Miller. Mrs. Johnson, bottom right, also contributed.

Proctors: The Leadership Factor

Proctors are vital at Gould; they provide real student leadership, by example and by action. Their year begins early working with Mr. Baker before school starts; by year's end the proctors have given many hours to work with students in the dormitories and other proctor projects. Elected by the school community, they make a difference. The 1992 Proctors: L-R, Mr. Baker, Jessica Miller, Bryce Gasser, Jason Boyd, Anne Jurgeleit, Josh Brethauer, Josh Platt, Jennifer Baldwin, Liese Stevens, Jason Walz, Masakazu Horiuchi, Jen Barstow, Molly Gartrell, Peter Dennett, Aleks Hickey, Campbell Mastin.

Class Reps

Class representatives are another vital resource at Gould; elected by classmates they help in many ways: this year's winter carnival owed much of its success to class reps.

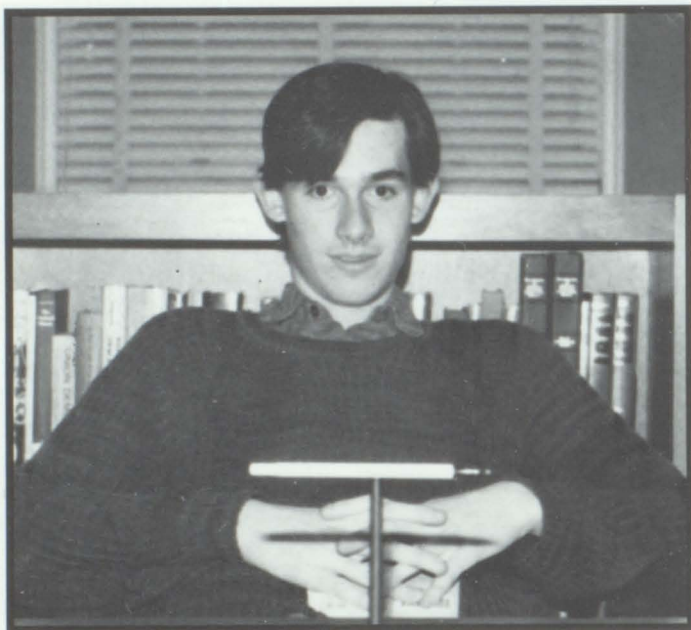

Gehring

Some years may be wilder, more unusual than others, but this past season in Gehring was one for the books. A unique assortment of willful young women kept things noisy and in perpetual motion of one kind or another. The excitement was a bit much for some; a few vanished before year's end. Miss Head kept things short of total chaos, until Tonka arrived. The crew of the S. S. Gehring is to the left; below some inmates indoors and out at Winter Carnival.

Holden

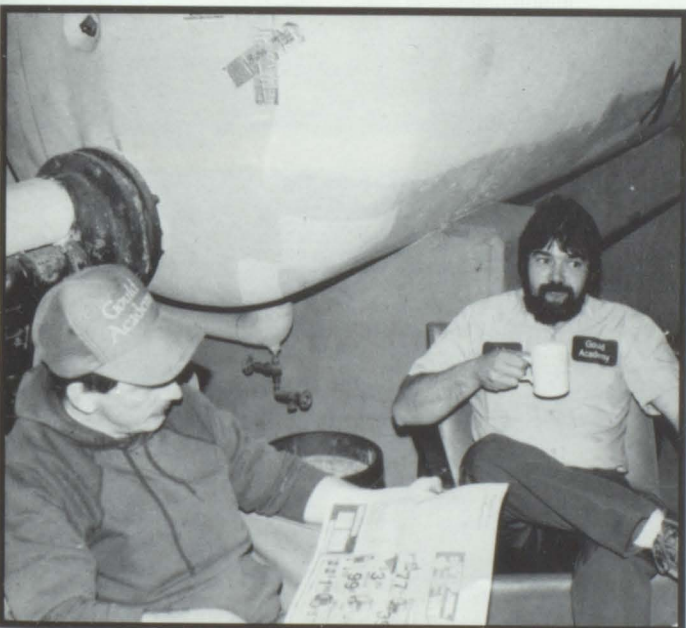

Holden Hall has a long history of psychotic behavior, a place where bizarre is normal. This year's inhabitants pictured at right kept the tradition alive, especially on the second floor. To indicate this group's special qualities it should be noted that two hours after its picture was taken nobody had moved from these positions, maybe they were waiting for another Gehring fire drill. Mr. Hutchins, Max and Mr. Henry along with the Johnsons did their best to make Holden a "home."

Davidson

Davidson is a special place; another special place is Hell. This year the basement level was free of permanent patients for use by different groups of guests. Upstairs things remained normal: dignified strains of string quartets and other "classical" noises punctuating sounds of constant studying. One mystery was the disappearance of a bearded man living on the second floor. The whole gang seen at left did well at Winter Carnival below; at bottom a typical suite next to a well used dorm at year's end.

Brown

Brown House survived their experimental year as a mixed dorm although nobody is quite sure when Mrs. Hill realized that the ladies of Brown were harboring a man upstairs, one Michael Jordan to be exact. To the left he may be seen protecting his women in their second floor fortress, below the ball, Nicole Welshimer, then Jill Nowak, Ericka Stevens, Jessica Miller, and Briana Bateman. Facial expressions lead one to believe a formal inquiry into what happened in Brown this year would be in order.

Zallen

Zallen House offers an elite dormitory refuge for a few special people each year and has a history rich in lore involving unusual and memorable Gould students. The Bakers and their super guard beast, Willy, provide plenty of security, not to mention the attack sheep which were added to the arsenal this past season. At left, l-r, are the four fortunate residents, Caitlin Henningsen, Lucia Rankin, Leah Muliero, Gwen Stockwell.

When the Bakers added some upstairs space to their downstairs kingdom, there was a certain need for adjustment so that the three girls in the triple could learn to live with less space, but as one can see Lucia, Caitlin, and Leah managed well with less although studying at once was a problem.

Day Students

Day Student power at Gould is considerable with a daily force which exceeds thirty unless there have been snow flurries or excessive sniffles in the Greater Bethel area. With their own proctor, Bryce Gasser, as well as other more quasi-official leaders, day students made significant contributions to the life of the school and displayed an impressive diversity of skills and learning styles. Day Student sightings are frequent: to left, Holly Walega, Sam Langlois, Bekka Kuzyk; below Julia Johnson at work; Sam Langlois and Amy Todd; bottom, the whole hoagie.

COMMENCEMENT

May 30, 1992

Graduation Weekend was warm, happy, and sunny with the end of an educational adventure for the graduates, their friends, and parents. The mood was certainly upbeat, and there were many reasons to celebrate. The speeches at both Baccalaureate and Graduation were exceptionally good, and the backdrop of The Class of 1992's Freshman Four Point Banner on stage in Bingham reminded the graduates how far they had traveled in four fast moving years. To the right are Baccalaureate speakers Paul McGuire and Garrett Silliman; below the Class of 1992's Freshman artwork; to its right Jennifer Baldwin, Julia Johnson, Molly Gray, Liese Stevens, Lucia Rankin; farther below Mr. Clough surveys Baccalaureate lineup next to soon to be graduates with Tinike Ouwinga videotaped by Patrice Leary, '89.

Gould's 156th Commencement featured an address in stereo by Dr. Charles and wife Edith Seashore who are pictured top right just after the ceremony. The senior student speaker was Tim Williams. Graduation suddenly began to seem real when Valedictorian Molly Gartrell started the procession toward Bingham followed by Headmaster Clough, Reverend Bass, and Chairman of the Board Alan Ordway. Finally to the left The Class of 1992 has become memories and new alumni.

We wish you happiness, growth, and contentment at UVM and all the days of your life, Maura. God Bless you. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Congratulations, Garrett! Your passion for books and reading will soon serve you well. Good luck and lots of love, Mom and Dad.

Congratulations, Campbell. You're headed for Montana, but the dream will always bring you home. All our love, Mom and Dad, Ted and Katie.

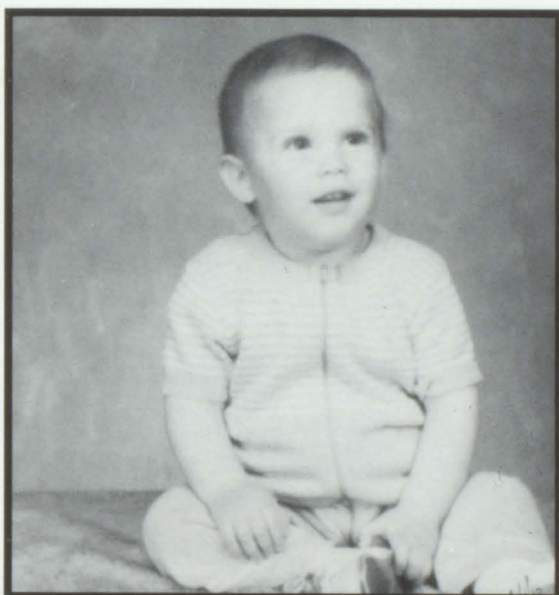

Congratulations, Allison. We are proud of you. We wish you all the best for the future. Love, Mom and Lance.

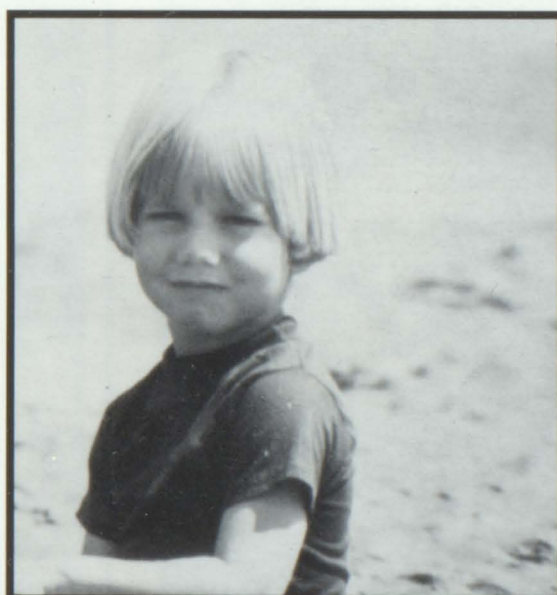

Congratulations, Peter, to you and your classmates. We wish you well on the next adventures of life. Lots of love, Mom and Dad.

Molly! A great performance then and now! We applaud you and your class and hope you stay in touch with each other throughout the years. Best love, Mom and Dad.

Great job, Michael. We are very proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad. Congratulations and Best Wishes to the Class of 1992.

Great job, Jason! . . .and you have only just begun. Much love, Mom, Dad, and Dana.

Congratulations and love to Jennifer from your greatest fans, Mom, Dad, and Liz.

David, your last year was the best. We are very proud of you. Lots of love, Mom and Dad!

Congratulations, David. We are proud of you and wish you and your classmates all the best. Love, Mom and Dad.

Goodbye for now to all our friends at Gould. Good luck to those who follow us and to those we leave behind. Take advantage of your opportunities. We will be in touch. Thanks for everything!
